THE TIMES.
R. CLEMENT, Editor.
WEDNESDAY, FEB. 28, 1906.

And Richmond is to grow bigger by virtue of Judicial decision. That may be law but it isn't justice.

"When a man is elected to Congress he walks on air. Afterward he can't stand up without speaker Cannon's permission."

President Tucker is making much money for the Jamestown Exposition. It's a pre-eminently Virginia show and they can not afford failure, and the doors ought to open on time. Will they?

We are glad to know that Governor Montague and his associates who served on the Jamestown Exposition commission, promptly spurned the suggestion that they should be paid for doing their duty.

President Roosevelt's advice to the newly wedded pair:

"To the daughter—Be a dutiful and loving wife."

To the son-in-law—Love and cherish your wife through life."

We can't resist a feeling of something akin to pity for our railway corporations. They began the year by withdrawing 500 "excursions" and it looks now that they will close it in distress. State and National law makers are "going" for them and it looks as though they would be driven ingloriously from the field.

Senator Martin's friends should never have him to be forced to appear at the bar as a "joker" and not as speaker. Better for his reputation that he had not appeared before the legislature on Wednesday last. His most ardent admirers could not discover a single spark of greatness or touch of the Senatorial about that effort.

The war on the insidious and never-tiring cigarette should be made fast and furious. The little pest has done more harm than war pestilence and famine combined. and yet the man who made and introduced them died worth millions and is eulogized as a benefactor of mankind. The dollar is well called "mighty."

McCall is first of the mighty insurance magnates to die under the strain and stress of publicity. Alexander is wasting away and McCurdy would seek relief in foreign climes. Monarchs yesterday, mute to do them obedience to-day. What king who is without one first cast a stone." "None righteous no not one." "The heart of man is desperately wicked and deceitful above all things."

With a "strenuous" President our country is getting to be strenuous enough to bring to the fore a live volcano. Colorado has the distinction of being pioneer in this regard and if she will keep it on duty she will have a drawing card for curiosity hunters. In the meantime the commercial greed of the age would rob Niagara of its glory and grandeur.

We are not surprised to learn that J. S. Wise is opposed to the Jamestown Exposition. A negro preacher in Richmond is also opposed to it, and for the reason that it smacks of the Jim Crow flavor. Giles Jackson, a worthy colored man favors the Exposition and the only objection he has to the Jim Crow law is that it does'nt operate to separate the "bad niggers from the good niggers." We regret that it does'nt make a like division among the whites.

It is no surprise to us that Senator Tillman is to day the most conspicuous figure of the august body of which he has so long been a member. Laughed at, made mock of, he has gone steadily to the front leaving behind him those who boasted of their learning and their lineage. There is just one "rub" Tillman, and he is strong enough to "stand alone." Politics never compounded more of a mixture than when "Teddy" and Tillman crowded under the same blanket.

The "servant girl" problem thickens and deepens. We had as well realize that the luxury of being waited on in the home is a luxury that belongs to a dear, but dead past. But one thing remains to be done and that is to substitute a mechanical convenience for the living help. And when the change has been consummated we will wonder that we were so long introducing it. We repeat that Anglo-Saxons are not a dependent people They can wait on themselves as well as wage their own wars.

Commissioner Knorr has been going through the state on what's surrounding experts to our farmers who have been telling them something they ought to know. Good thinking of the farm is as necessary as good thinking in the shop and in the school room. The right way is the best way and persons who hate to do things right should know the best way—else how to right to do.

Judge George L. Christian's letter is no doubt just as good a one as any other Virginia boy to when the Legislature has nothing else to do but to inquire into the pranks of college boys and the manner of dealing with them in the part of faculties and boards, it will be a good time to adjourn and go home.

Senator Thomas, of Lynchburg, went down with flying colors in the fight for a Commission of inquiry. So, but there is not good going to stay down. The Senator is right and the people will say so. A rigid inspection of all departments in which the people of the state has interests, is in order. Where there is a suspicion there is more need for it. Turn on the lights.

No one can carefully read the pamphlet of Hon. Camm Patteson which he has prepared and given to the public on the division of the school funds and not be impressed with the grievous "unfairness of the deal. His plea for "charity at home," "white man's money for white man's children" is strong, and from its standpoint, unanswerable. If you have'nt read it send for a copy to Captain Patteson, Richmond, get it and study it.

If Richmond is not going to retain the State Fair liberally another place should be selected for holding it. The people of Virginia are interested on the entirety of holding a State Fair, not Exhibition or Exposition, but old fashioned Fair, as Richmond is the place, that is Richmond wants it. And it is high time that the site had been selected and work was being pushed. Who will be the manager for carrying the gate receipts? Everything depends upon having a competent manager. Let the great crowds that will be ready to enter.

Former Buckingham Boy.

DEAR MR. EDITOR.—Though hard pressed with business engagements and much travel day after day, yet I wish to pause for some moments, and express my high appreciation of the A. & B. TIMES that finds it's way to my Sunday stop overs and which I delight so much in reading. Where in all Virginia can such a country paper be matched in it's bright and newsy pages week after week? Extending to its many readers such freedom of speech to discuss, think and speak together upon such timely topics, viz. higher educational facilities, better highways, organizing of the farmers to secure fair prices for their products. I also rejoice to note the prevailing sentiment against the dispensary, which is nothing more than the bar in disguise, one of the greatest evils of our country, it's true Virginia is sadly in need of better public highways but may the day never come when we'll have to secure funds through the dispensary to erect them. If our national government can appropriate it's millions for harbor and river improvements and our sister states with less taxable property can erect and maintain creditable highways, why shouldn't the Old Dominion's law makers appropriate a handsome amount for our greatest need. Today there is under construction in the State of Virginia over 500 miles of railroad, which will in a few years, yield many tho sand dollars to the state treasury, and those workers are coming into our midst from all parts of the union, and from many you hear the first complaint "no roads in Virginia, we would not have their farm lands."

The recent erection of a tobacco warehouse at Pamplin, and the contemplated ware room at West Appomattox reflects credit to the thrifty farmers of the adjoining country. May the day be not far distant when the farmer will feel the reward of labor.

I greatly enjoy reading your correspondents letters, in the reading of some I am often carried back to the memory of other days. Much success to the TIMES and its host of readers.

Andersonville.

It is time you and I have another talk we give an attentive ear.

SEED TIME

The experienced farmer has learned that some grains require far different soil than others; some crops need differenthandling than others. He knows that a great deal depends upon right planting at the right time, and that the soil must be kept enriched. No use of complaining in summer about a mistake made in the spring. Decide before the seed is planted.

The best time to remedy wasting conditions in the burning soil is before the evil is too deep rooted. At the first evidence of loss of flesh

Scott's Emulsion

A serious accident was narrowly averted to day at Dillwyn, when the home of J. W. Anderson caught on fire in one of the bed rooms. When discovered the room was ablaze from floor to ceiling. Miss Virginia Gilliam and Mrs. Emmett McCraw had about put it out when help from the store arrived.

Mrs. Anderson has been sick for ten days under the care of Dr. Nowin and Miss Gilliam; she is reported to day as very much better

Our old friend, Dick Payne came home Thursday last with a badly cut hand. A visit to-day found him fat and jolly as usual and he expects to go back to work near the state farm Wednesday if his health continues to improve.

J. T. Spencer is visiting friends at Arcanum. He spent a night with an old comrade at Andersonville last week, who slept many a night in the 60's under the same blanket. Joe never tried once to get the larger share of the blanket or grub—he toted fair. Amen.

If Capt. Patteson don't make haste and get all the old women on the pension roll some will begin to spark again.

A recent visit to Toga found things moving—a bran new store full of nice and pretty goods; wheat and oats looking fine; our friend Jim Henry serene and happy.

Dan Keller in Outlook says two things make bad roads, water and dirt. Keep them apart the roads would be good. We can't get an umbrella large enough for all the roadway so the dirt will have to be put in such shape that as little of it as possible will be exposed in the road way. A 3-foot ditch each side 18 feet apart, with an angle from bottom of ditch to centre of road bed with necessary cross lays to keep the water in the ditches and the ditches kept clean would help the matter much, but it is much easier to talk than to do.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theatre in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold which could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: 'Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlin's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Willcox, New York.
